

Theta Chi Fraternity Fees – 2023-24
Purdue University

NEW MEMBER FEES (School Year)

New Member Fee: $310 (one-time administration fee assessed by National Office within 10 days of bid acceptance)

Annual Programming and Benefits Fee: $530 (annual property, casualty, and liability insurance fee assessed by National Office each year)

Greekbill Fee from National: $18 per semester - $36 per year member software usage fee assessed by National Office

New Member Fee to local Chapter: $50 per month facilities/food usage fee (until the end of the school year)

LIVE-IN MEMBER FEES

Annual Programming and Benefits Fee: $530 (annual property, casualty, and liability insurance & administration fee assessed by National Office each year)

Room & Board: Choose one of two payment plans

Option #1: Double Occupancy - Pay $5,500 a semester (about a 16% discount over the monthly rate) or Pay $1,600 per month (approx. equal to average Purdue Dorm rate)

Option #2: Triple Occupancy - Pay $5,000 per semester (about a 18% discount over the monthly rate) or Pay $1,475 per month.

Technology Fee: $250 per semester – provides wireless internet service throughout the premises, including technology infrastructure and equipment.

Laundry Fee: $75 per semester – enables members to use four fee-free washers and dryers

Security Deposit: $1,000 (one-time fee, refundable upon graduation from the university if housing contract and out-of-house contract requirements met)

NOTE

All members are expected to live in the chapter house per the agreed upon housing contract while attending Purdue University.

We gladly welcome any questions regarding the costs associated with membership in Theta Chi Fraternity. Please direct your questions to Steve Pfefferle,

Treasurer, steven.pfefferle@gmail.com

For more information visit: www.purduethetachi.com